Numb. 1713

MONDAY, DECEMBER 15. 1740.

№ 1711.

Laſt Saturday arriv'd the Mail due from Holland, with the following important News from the Court of Pruſſia, dated the 2d Inſtant, O. S.

DECLARATION of his Pruſſian Majeſty, containing his Motives for marching a Body of his Troops to Sileſia.

HE King of Pruſſia, by cauſing his Forces to enter into Sileſia, has not been induc'd to take this Step from any ill Deſign againſt the Court of Vienna, and much leſs with a View to diſturb the Peace of the Empire.

His Pruſſian Majeſty found himſelf indiſpenſably oblig'd to have Recourſe without delay to this Proceeding, for challenging the unconteſtable Rights of his Family to this Duchy, founded upon ancient Conventions of Family and Confraternity, between the Electors of Brandenbourg and the Princes of Sileſia, as well as upon other honourable Titles.

'The preſent Circumſtances of Affairs, and the juſt Apprehenſion he has of being defeated by ſuch as form Pretenſions to the late Emperor's Succeſſion, have required Diſpatch in this Undertaking, and Vigour in the Execution of it.

'And tho' theſe Reaſons did not permit the King to communicate the Matter previouſly with the Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, yet they will never divert his Pruſſian Majeſty from ſtrenuouſly eſpouſing the Intereſts of the Houſe of Auſtria at all Times, and from being the firmeſt Prop and Support of it upon all Occaſions that ſhall offer.'

The above Declaration, which was communicated the 25th ult. O. S. to all the Foreign Miniſters at Berlin, has alſo been deliver'd at the Hague by M. Raſtadt, and is to be likewiſe given by other Miniſters of the King of Pruſſia at the ſeveral Courts of Europe, who at the ſame Time are order'd to declare by Word of Mouth, That his Pruſſian Majeſty, by this Proceeding, has no mean to do the leaſt Prejudice to the Pragmatick Sanction. A Manifeſto is preparing at Berlin, and will ſoon be publiſh'd, ſetting forth the Rights of the Brandenburg Family to the Duchy of Sileſia.

In purſuance of theſe Reſolutions taken by the King of Pruſſia, the Troops deſign'd for Sileſia began their March from Berlin on the 23d ult. O. S. The firſt Body that went off, was 100 Gunners, with 4 Pieces of heavy Canon, 20 Field Pieces, 4 Great Mortars, 4 Battering Rams, and 24 Falcons. After theſe went 24 Carpenters, 20 Pontons, 8 Waggons with Proviſions, 101 with Ammunition; and the Squadron of Gens d'Armes follow'd immediately after, commanded by the Major d'Aſſebourg. The 24th and 25th 2 Regiments more march'd, with ſeveral of the King's Led Horſes, and ſome of the Plate for his Majeſty's Table. On the 27th another Regiment march'd, with 100 Pioneers; as did next Day another, juſt then arriv'd from Magdebourg, and the Regiment of Huſſars. Three Regiments that remain at Berlin, have receiv'd Orders to be ready to follow them upon the firſt Notice; and Prince Leopold of Anhalt-Deſſau is to have under his Command a ſeparate Body of Grenadiers. All theſe Forces are to rendezvous in the Duchy of Croſſen, which belongs to the King; the full Poſſeſſion of this Frontier of Brandenbourg and Sileſia, which lies upon the Oder, having been granted to the Elector of Brandenbourg by the Emperor Frederick I. King of Bohemia. After this they are to march in one Body into Sileſia, where the King ſays they are to be no Charge to the Inhabitants, his Majeſty having given Orders that they ſhall pay for what they conſume.

The Reſolutions form'd by the King with this View have been kept ſo ſecret, that they did not take the leaſt Wind, till they could be conceal'd no longer. The Queen of Hungary's Miniſter at Berlin, viz. the Marquis de Botta, hearing that Troops were ſending off to Sileſia, went to the King's Miniſters to know the Meaning of it, who told him that Orders were indeed diſpatch'd for the March of thoſe Forces; but they gave the Miniſter ſuch Reaſons for it, as ſeem'd to make him eaſy.

The Letters from Berlin add, That the King was preparing to follow his Troops that are marching to Sileſia, that he may be at hand to give neceſſary Orders, and to ſee them put in Execution. The Marquis de Valori the French Miniſter at his Court, immediately ſent an Expreſs to Paris, with Advice of their March, and their Intention. The French Envoy Extraordinary at Berlin, viz. the Marquis de Beauveau, having din'd with the King and Queen the 29th ult. had his Audience of Leave of their Majeſties next Day, and the King preſented him with his Picture ſet in Diamonds.

Augsbourg, Nov. 29. O. S. They write from Munich, that the Elector of Bavaria has nominated the following his Plenipotentiary Miniſters, viz. Count de Peroufe, to go to Paris, the Baron de Haſslang to London, the young Count de Thoring to Berlin, and the Baron de Wetzel to Dreſden.

Madrid, Nov. 17. O. S. 'Tis confirm'd that part of the Troops which are filing off towards Catalonia, are deſign'd for Italy, to maintain a certain Claim to the Dutchies of Tuſcany, Parma, and Placentia. A Letter is arriv'd here from Vienna from the Archduchеſs Mary Thereſa, to notify to the King her Acceſſion to the Dignity of Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, but the Notification is obſtructed on Account of ſome Titles inſerted in the Letter.

Peterſbourg, Nov. 17. O.S. When her Imperial Highneſs the Great Dutcheſs appointed the Veld Marſhal Munich Prime Miniſter in all the Councils, ſhe ſaid in Preſence of the whole Court, There's my Defender, and the Defender of the Empire. 'Tis He who has deliver'd Us from the Birons and their Evil Deſigns. 'Tis ſettled that he ſhall take Precedency next to the Duke Anthony Ulric of Brunſwic, and before all the Miniſters and Generals; and that his Counteſs ſhall take Place likewiſe before all the Ladies of the Court. His Son is appointed Great Steward of the Houſhold to the Princeſs Anne. On the Day that the Duke of Courland was carried to Schlieſſelbourg, nothing was omitted to mortify both him and his Lady. They were not only left expoſed to the Rain and Snow for near half an Hour before the Gate of the Winter Palace, where they were loaded with the Curſes of the Populace; but the Duke, when he was put into the Waggon to be conveyed to the Fortreſs, had the further Mortification, to ſee near Thirty Perſons in his Paſſage that were deliver'd out of the Priſon to which he had commited them, who reproach'd him for what they had ſuffer'd during their Confinement. Of this Number was, Andrew Jackowitz, a Counſellor of State, and Secretary of the Cabinet, who was ſo ſeverely chaſtis'd by the Knout, that he will bear the Marks of it as long as he lives. As 'tis apprehended that the Duke and his Brother the Count Guſtavus de Biron, may attempt to make away with themſelves, Dr. Smith a German Phyſician, is ſent to the Fortreſs to attend them. All the Generals, Officers, and other Perſons, that had obtained Employments of the Duke, or had any Share in his Confidence, have either been arreſted or turned out; and all his Domeſticks, to the Number of Threeſcore, are committed to Priſon. Search is making every where for his chief Favourite Liepman the Jew, by whoſe abominable Counſels, the Duke's Conduct was in many Reſpects governed. Anoother of the Duke's Favourites is juſt apprehended, viz. M. Alfendiel, a Livonian Gentleman, who was a Captain of the Guards, and ſerv'd formerly in the French Army. This is the Man, it ſeems, who inform'd againſt the Counts Woliinski, Muſin Puſkin, and others, whoſe tragical Execution was lately mention'd. M. Beſtuchef, a Miniſter of the Cabinet is committed, with his Lady and Family, to the Fortreſs of Kexholm: 'Tis lucky for M. Schavirs, the Duke of Courland's Private Secretary, that before this Cataſtrophe happen'd to his Maſter, the Duke had ſent him to Stockholm, to conclude an Accommodation with Sweden at any Rate. 'Tis reported that the Duke is to be committed to the Caſtle of Novogorod-Weliki, where the unfortunate Princes Dolghorucki were impriſon'd and executed.

Naples, Nov. 11. O. S. Laſt Week a violent Storm happen'd in theſe Parts, by which Seven Tartanes laden with Corn and Oil, were caſt away, but the Crews were ſav'd. They talk that the Death of the Emperor has given Birth to ſome Deſigns of this Court. 'Tis ſaid that ſeveral Tartanes and Veſſels are ſhortly to be hir'd for tranſporting 12000 Men of the King's Troops, to the Maritime Places of Tuſcany.

Florence, Nov. 15. O. S. We hear that the Spaniſh Garriſons in the State del Preſidii, are to be reinforced, that the Officers who are abſent from thence, are order'd to repair to their Poſts, and that ſome thouſand Men are expected there from Naples.

Vienna, Nov. 23. The Queen of Hungary and Bohemia has declared, that in order to adminiſter her Government in the beſt Manner, ſhe has made her Conſort the Great Duke of Tuſcany, Joint-Regent with her of all her Dominions, as far as is conſiſtent with the Pragmatick Sanction. Yeſterday Prince Charles of Lorrain was declared Field Marſhal; the Command of the Regiment of Horſe late Odveyer's, was given to the Prince of Birkenfield; the Regiment of Dragoons late Philippi's, to General Bahyra; young Wallis's Regiment of Foot is given to young Daun, the late Marſhal Wilſheck's being given to the ſaid Wallis.
